

Christian Bubenheim

CEO at foodspring

University of St.Gallen
Executive School of Management,
Technology and Law

Christian Bubenheim is passionate about building businesses and teams that create innovative customer driven solutions at scale and deliver success in both commercial and total impact “ESG” results. Inspire – Connect – Co Create to drive positive change at scale.

His career spans 15years in executive and GM positions at Apple, Compaq/HP, Intel and Magellan Navigation based in the USA innovating in products and services, followed by over 10 years in Europe building and scaling omnichannel, marketplace and platform businesses including Division Lead at Amazon EU, MD at AutoScout24 and CEO at Internet Stores a.o.

Recently he focuses on his work as Investor and Board member/advisor including since 2017 as Sr. Advisor at EQT partners.

Christian is Chair of the Supervisory Board at BHG Group AB, KfzTeile 24 and probono Chair at 21future a not for profit organization bringing new concepts in education. He also serves on the Board of BioGaia AB, Dunlop Protective Footwear, and ProSenio/Sanubi. Bubenheim holds a Diploma in Economics and Engineering from University of Applied Sciences in Munich, Germany