Chairwoman & CEO of Skyadvisory

Dr. Christina H. Henkel is Chairwoman & CEO of Skyadvisory, an international management consulting firm. She advises boards and executive teams to find the right answers for most pressing strategic challenges and to drive results. She has served her clients in leadership positions at Kearney, The Boston Consulting Group, Monitor Group and Roland Berger Strategy Consultants across the globe.

She is a boardmember, investor and speaker and publishes regularly on strategy and leadership topics and has been teaching at the University of St. Gallen since her graduation both for master level students and also at the executive school.

The start of her leadership journey was her officer training with the reconnaissance troops of the German army. Learning structural dynamics from Harvard's David Kantor was life changing in her development as a leader. Christina is passionate about leadership and personal development – as a mentor, teacher and coach she is enthusiastic to see people grow. She draws on her personal transition which she describes as a «fantastic journey into my unknown self» and on her own leadership experience. This combination is a rich source for the topics which are dear to her heart: personal development and transformation, transition stories, leadership model building and diversity & inclusion.
