Managing Partner at b2venture

Christian Schütz is Managing Partner at b2venture, a venture capital firm founded in 2000. He is responsible for the management of four b2venture investment funds as well as for a large portfolio of direct investments from b2venture angel investors. He is passionate about venture investing in the life sciences, medtech and health-AI sectors. He is a member of the board of directors of b2venture.

Christian is an experienced investor who joined b2venture early in his career in 2003 when he completed his PhD with a focus on venture capital and angel investing. Since then, he has built a portfolio of over 35 startup investments and is currently a board member in 5 portfolio companies. Working with startups and angel investors, serving as a jury member and advising companies from startup to growth phase are at the core of his daily work.
