

Prof. Dr. Winfried Ruigrok

Dean of Executive School at University of St.Gallen

Prof. Dr. Winfried Ruigrok is Dean of the Executive School of Management, Technology & Law at the University of St.Gallen. He is also Professor of International Management and Director of the Research Institute for International Management at the University of St. Gallen. He conducts research on international strategy, corporate governance, the role of the CEO, top management teams and boards of directors, CEO careers, CEO compensation, and research methods. He has won numerous awards and has worked as a consultant and leadership trainer with dozens of multinational corporations.

University of St.Gallen

Executive School of Management,
Technology and Law